

Formartine United Football Club - Hospitality Terms and Conditions

Any customers who have made a hospitality booking have done so in agreement with the following Terms & Conditions:

Booking Policy

A booking will be held for 7 days at which point full payment is required or the allocation will be released for re sale.

When the customer has agreed credit facilities with the Club a non-refundable deposit of 50% of the cost of the hospitality is required to be made at the time of booking.

A provisional booking will be held for 7 days and released automatically if your deposit is not received.

All bookings made within 30 days of the match will be payable in full at time of booking.

Cancellation Policy

Once payment has been received, no refund will be offered upon cancellation.

Cancellations must be by e-mail to formartineunitedfc@highlandleague.com

Fixture Dates

All fixture dates are subject to change. Should a fixture date change for any reason you will be notified and the booking will be transferred to the rescheduled date, or can be changed to an alternative event (subject to availability and conditions). Formartine United Football Club cannot reimburse any costs incurred as a result of such fixture date changes.

Fixture Times

All fixture times are subject to change. Should a fixture change to an earlier or later kick off time, the food and drink package may be changed at the Club's discretion. Alcohol will be served in accordance with licensing laws. Formartine United Football Club cannot reimburse any costs incurred as a result, offer any discount or provide any refund.

Away Supporters

Please be advised that whilst we welcome visiting supporters to North Lodge Park, the Hospitality facilities are all located in home area. Therefore visiting supporters are advised to act discreetly. Please note that away club colours are not permitted within the Hospitality area.

Conduct

The Club will not tolerate abusive behaviour towards any other visitors, staff and employees. Anyone considered to be doing so will be asked to leave the stadium.

By booking hospitality you agree to Formartine United Football Club's Policies & Practices. For full information please visit www.formartineutd.com/#!/documents/cb57

Resale Policy

Formartine United Football Club does not permit the transfer or re-sale of hospitality tickets. Failure to inform the Club of any changes to attending guests may result in the booking cancelled at which point no alternative date will be offered and no refund given.

Dress Code

In keeping with the standards of dress maintained within Formartine United Football Club, we ask all hospitality guests to comply with the following dress code;

Smart casual with smart jeans and trainers permitted along with (home) Club colours also allowed.

Hospitality customers and their guests must comply with the Club's Dress Code and failure to do so will result in access to the Lounge being denied. Away team colours, tracksuits, shorts, denim clothing that is torn or bleached and potentially offensive slogans are strictly not permitted.

The only exceptions to this Dress Code are children under 12 years of age.

Responsible Drinking

Formartine United Football Club are committed to making a significant and sustainable impact on creating a more positive role for alcohol in society and making real progress in cutting alcohol misuse and making responsible drinking a valued and enjoyable part of life.

Treated responsibly, alcohol is associated with enjoyment and celebration, but it is common knowledge that excessive, or inappropriate consumption, can cause health and social problems for individuals and society.
